Bikemap is the leading digital platform for cycling maps and routes worldwide. Within just a few cycling seasons, more than 1.5M users have registered on Bikemap.net and together created over 3.8M unique cycling routes. We're growing fast and are active in more than 100 countries, spanning a global route network of more than 400M kilometres. Our goal is to provide the best cycling apps in the world, crafting exciting new use cases for multiple platforms, fueling the personal mobility revolution.

You think that cycling is not only a mode of transport, but a way of life? You want to play part in the biggest personal mobility revolution cities worldwide have seen yet? Then join our highly motivated team of cycling enthusiasts and let us shape the future of cycling together.

Here's what you will do:

- As part of our young, smart and motivated software development team you will write code used by more than 1,500,000 users worldwide
- Development, Conception and implementation of the Bikemap Android app
- Collaboration with designers, engineers and product managers to design and ship new features
- Implementation of innovative ideas to challenge yourself and others

In general, we're looking for someone with:

- Experience with Android development and expert knowledge of Java and Android frameworks
- Excellent skills in writing a clean and maintainable code
- Outstanding problem solving skills
- Experience with Google Design Guidelines, REST Web Services/APIs, JSON, Open-Source-Libraries, GitHub
- Very good German and / or English skills

Here's why you should join our team:

- We're a young and dynamic team, shaping a product that is enthusiastically used by its community of passionate cyclists.
- At Bikemap everyone brings in new ideas and can influence the growth of our company. We're committed to try out new things and to keep on learning. Our team spirit drives our motivation for constant progress and regular after-works.
- If you're hungry for new challenges and want to be part of a creative working environment, we should get to know you.
- Very nice office location in the beautiful 1st district & coffee of the highest quality

Hooked? Well, then tell us about you and your dev stories! Dazzle us with your CV, showcases, portfolio or whatever you'd like us to see. Please send everything to join@bikemap.net.

We're excited to hear from you!
